'Going the Extra Mile'

The new Sainsbury's Local Store at Leeds Road, Harrogate was officially opened by Jackie Snape from Disability Action Yorkshire. The building was formerly the Milepost Public House, and has been extended into a larger premises to accommodate the store.

As part of Sainsbury's on-going Community Spirit Programme new paving has been laid to the rear of one of the care homes of Disability Action Yorkshire. Disability Action Yorkshire is a charity that provides services which create opportunities for disabled people to live the life of their choosing, and the new paving area has improved the access to the garden for the workers and residents to enjoy.

Above:- Thank you letter from Disability Action Yorkshire.
